

Fusion Microfinance holds medical camp

DEHRADUN,
AUG 21 (HTNS)

Fusion Microfinance, moving a step forward towards its social responsibility, conducted a medical camp in Gadarpur in Udham Singh Nagar, which was inaugurated by Anju Bhuddi, Chairperson, Nagar Palika, Gadarpur.

The medical camp offered free consultation with the doctors and free medicine distribution. The camp aimed at spreading awareness of health amongst women and children of the society.

The daylong camp saw enthusiastic participation of a number of females and children of Gadarpur. More than 200 villagers took advantage of this opportunity by getting free consultation by a team of doctors. The specialist doctors included eye specialist, gynaecologist, paediatrician and general physician. Free multi vitamins were also distributed to women and children. Devesh Sachdev CEO and founder of Fusion

The daylong camp saw enthusiastic participation of a number of females and children of Gadarpur. More than 200 villagers took advantage of this opportunity by getting free consultation by a team of doctors.

Microfinance said, "We use a holistic model of development and undertake a number of CSR activities in larger interest of the community, especially in the areas of health, education, women empowerment and childcare. Through such health camps, we endeavour to provide necessary medical attention to the needy sections of society." Fusion contributes to towards the development of society and environment. The company undertakes CSR activities as per its policy, aligning to Schedule VII of the Companies Act 2013.